

THE LATE MR. M. MORRIS.

PORT AUGUSTA, May 31.—The funeral of the late Mr. Morris took place on Saturday afternoon and was largely attended. The Rev. J. Thomson read the burial service. Mr. Morris and Miss Morris, brother and sister of the deceased gentleman, were the chief mourners. Several residents of Farina came down to pay their last respects to their departed townsman. Mr. Needham (inspector of stock), Messrs. Forward (traffic superintendent), W. J. Trambash (clerk of the court), F. Clarke (sub-collector of Customs), J. Bearton (postmaster), and Field (inspector of police) acted as pall-bearers.
