

Charles Kemble Chapman

Personal details:

Charles Kemble Chapman was born on 27 December 1868 in Croydon, South Australia.

Charles married Elizabeth Ann Gill on 27 December 1899 in South Blinman, South Australia.

He lived in Farina from 1915 until his death in 1942.

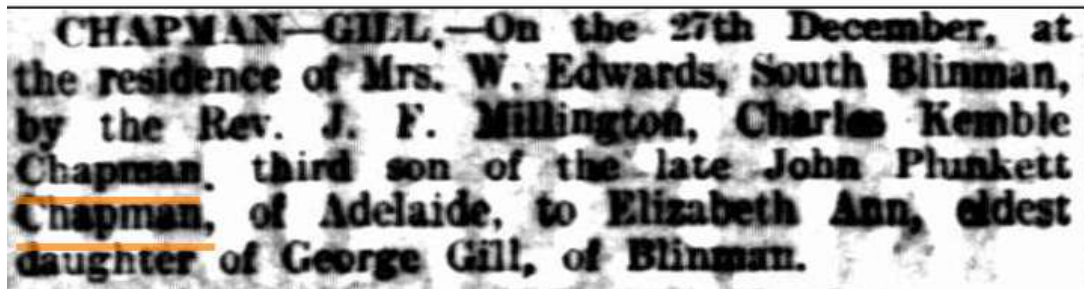

Charles Chapman died on 5 October 1942 and is buried in the Farina Cemetery, South Australia.

Biography

Charles Kemble Chapman was born on the 27 December 1868 in Croydon, South Australia.

Charles married Elizabeth Ann Gill on the 27 December 1899 at the house of Mrs. W Edwards in South Blinman, South Australia.

South Australian Register (Adelaide, SA : 1839 - 1900) (about) ◀ Friday 16 February 1900 ▶ ◀ Page 4

CHAPMAN—GILL.—On the 27th December, at the residence of Mrs. W. Edwards, South Blinman, by the Rev. J. F. Millington, Charles Kemble Chapman, third son of the late John Plunkett Chapman, of Adelaide, to Elizabeth Ann, eldest daughter of George Gill, of Blinman.

Marriage notice for Charles and Elizabeth.

Charles first appears in Sands and McDougall directory for Farina in 1915 as a Lorry man and was listed as a Lorry man right through to his death in 1942.

Charles and Ann had the following nine children:

1. George Stanley Chapman (1896-1938)
2. Charles Kean Chapman (1901-1955)
3. Albert Henry Chapman (1902-1902)
4. John Plunkett Chapman (1903-1985)
5. Emily Elizabeth Chapman (1906-1987)
6. Jeff Jack Chapman (1910- )
7. Harold George Chapman (1911-1947)
8. Arthur Kemble Chapman was born on 23 December 1916 in Quorn, South Australia and died on 20 November 2003 in Orroroo. Arthur married Ethel Mildred Lofts. Ethel was born on 18 September 1911 in Morchard, South Australia and died on 25 October 1991 at the Royal Adelaide Hospital, Adelaide, South Australia. Both Arthur and Ethel are buried in the Orroroo Cemetery. Arthur ran the Farina Post Office from 1939 until he enlisted in World War Two.
9. Muriel Elsie (Muzz) Chapman was born on 9 October 1920 in Marree. In 1942, Muriel took over running the Farina Post Office after her brother Arthur enlisted in World War Two. Muriel died on 14 January 2014 and was buried in the Farina Cemetery with her parents.

Charles Chapman died on 5 October 1942 and was buried in the Farina Cemetery, South Australia.

Charles and Elizabeth Kemble headstone with daughter Muriel at Farina.